How Do YOU View Baptism?

Jesus said:

"He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned." Mark 16:16

Catholics say:

He that is baptized (sprinkled) shall be saved and shall later believe.

Typical denominations say:

He that believes and is saved shall be baptized.

Don't you think we should stick with Jesus on this?

Who insisted on traveling with a prophet, going with him from Bethel to Jericho?

Last week:

Who received instructions to preach "upon the housetops"? 12 APOSTLES (Matthew 10:27)

When his wife asked him why, he responded that during that three-week meeting, he had baptized only one young girl.

Now for the rest of the story . . . that young girl later married and became the mother of four sons -- who all became Gospel preachers.

SIN'S VOLCANOES

Mount Pinatubo, an ancient volcano in the Philippines, had been dormant for over 500 years. It began to erupt on June 12, 1991, and three days later exploded, blasting a cubic mile off the mountaintop. The earth shook for eight hours. Due to the devastating blanket of fallen ash, the United States was forced to close Clark Air Force base, just a few miles away.

When a volcanologist was asked to account for the great damage which sent thousands of American soldiers and Filipinos fleeing, he replied, "When a volcano is silent for many years, people forget it's a volcano and begin to treat it like a mountain." There are many mountains in life that secretly are volcanoes waiting to erupt!

A glass of wine seems nice until it erupts into alcoholism. Casino gambling seems harmless until it explodes into an addiction. Neglecting a worship service on Sunday may seem innocent until the ash cloud of worldliness overtakes us. Solomon asked, "Can a man take fire in his bosom and his clothes not be burned?" (Proverbs 6:27).

Let us be sure that we treat Satan and sin for what they are, a dangerous volcano that can destroy our lives so quickly.

Be alert and of sober mind. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour.
