Bible Question

Who said, "I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel"?

Last week:

There were three men in the Bible who fasted 40 days and nights. Who were they?

JESUS (Matthew 4:2); MOSES (Exodus 34:28);

ELIJAH (1 Kings 19:8)

If you need/desire to be baptized, please let us know, and we will be happy to assist you. The baptistry is prepared and ready.

Jesus Loves Me This I Know (Senior Version)

Jesus loves me, this I know, Though my hair is white as snow, Though my sight is growing dim, Still He bids me trust in Him.

Though my steps are oh, so slow, With my hand in His I'll go, On through life, let come what may, He'll be there to lead the way.

When the nights are dark and long, In my heart He puts a song. Telling me in words so clear, 'Have no fear, for I am near.'

When my work on earth is done, And life's victories have been won. He will take me home above, Then I'll understand His love.

I love Jesus, does He know? Have I ever told Him so? Jesus loves to hear me say, That I love Him every day.

SENTENCE SERMONS

When we die we leave behind us all that we have and take with us all that we are.

Death is not a period but a comma in the story of life.

Are you interested in the hereafter? If so, just remember that HERE determines the AFTER.

What a Friend We Have in Jesus

"For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost." Luke 19:10

I had a friend who served in Vietnam as a medic who would fly into enemy territory to rescue wounded soldiers. This was obviously an extremely dangerous job she had, but she bravely did it in order to seek and to save the lost.

How does what she did compare to what Jesus did for us? It compares well. Jesus came into enemy territory to save us. He rescued us while we were hopelessly lost and dying.

But there are two compelling differences:

- 1. Jesus came to save His enemies, not His friends.
- 2. Jesus willingly gave his life (and we took it from Him) in order to save ours.

"...while we were enemies we were reconciled by the death of his Son..."

Romans 5:10

Father, thank You for sending Your Son to seek and to save us!

David Maxson

For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

John 3:16 KJV
