There were three men in the Bible who fasted 40 days and nights. Who were they?

*Last week:
What king had a singing choir lead the march into battle? JEHOSHAPHAT (2 Chronicles 20:17-21)*

 If you need/desire to be baptized, please let us know, and we will be happy to assist you. The baptistry is prepared and ready.

My father is a Christian;
He leads our household well;
With instruction from the Bible,
Right behavior he'll compel.

Yet he steers us with compassion;
His gentle love is true;
He conforms to our Lord Jesus,
So we know just what to do.

I'm glad you're a Christian, Dad;
You help me see things clearly.
I'll always look up to you,
And love you very dearly.

 A six-year-old boy surprised his mother by saying that he knew the name of Noah's wife. His mother pointed out to him, "I don't think the Bible tells us what her name was."

The boy answered very confidently, "Oh, yes it does. The Bible says Noah found Grace in the sight of the Lord."

When I was a kid, I would watch "The Jack LaLanne Show" on TV. He was a fitness pioneer. A chiropractor by training, he opened his first health spa in California in 1936. Stressing diet and exercise, he called himself the "Godfather of Fitness." He would say, "I can't die — it would ruin my image." Consider his image ruined as he died in 2011 at the age of 96.

Our nation is consumed with living longer. We exercise, diet, pop pills, go into debt, plan our retirement, color our hair, have our doors bolted, our lives insured, our stocks managed, our tummies tucked, and our cholesterol tested. We put warning labels on everything from cigarettes to trash bags, all in an effort to prevent anything from ending our lives one moment too soon. But in the end, our image is ruined, we die!

A young ruler came to Jesus with a question, and it was not, "What must I do to live longer?" No, he ran to Jesus with the question, "What must I do to inherit eternal life?" (Mark 10:17). Oh, that we would seek eternal life rather than long life!

Are you trying to live longer to avoid the grave or preparing for death to gain Heaven?
