Bible Question

When Jesus was arrested, Peter took a sword and cut off the ear of a man. Who was the man?

Last week:

Who said, "I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel"? PAUL (Acts 20:33)

If you need/desire to be baptized, please let us know, and we will be happy to assist you. The baptistry is prepared and ready.

A Better Yoke

As you look around our city, state, and nation, it is not hard to see that many people have gotten their lives into difficult, sad, and destructive situations. The materialistic, immoral and drug infested sins of the flesh have destroyed, and is destroying, many lives. Where is there hope of a better life?

Jesus pleaded, "Come unto me all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light" (Matthew 11:28-30). The burdens of the world are oppressive and stressful, destructive, and vile. Jesus offers a "yoke" that is supportive and happy, hopeful and helpful.

Many look at Christianity as a restrictive and unattractive lifestyle. All this church and prayer and moral stuff, they see it as out of touch with the free and all-inclusive ways of the modern world. What they fail to see is how "easy and light" life can be when it is lived in the yoke of Christ. What the world wants is the peace and joy we have, but they want it outside of Christ and his teachings. He said "learn from Me," something the world refuses to do. Let us show others what we have in Christ; a peace that passes understanding, a support system that will not quit, and a faith that cannot be moved.

SENTENCE SERMON

Fight Truth Decay — STUDY THE BIBLE!

The Righteous Nation

"Righteousness exalts a nation, But sin is a disgrace to any people." (Proverbs 14:34)

This proverb is unique. Most of the time these sayings of wisdom are directed to individuals. As a result, this one stands out. "Righteousness" is a common word in the book, describing compliance to God's laws in thought and action. So, here it is talking about an entire nation that is living right. Wow! Show me that nation and I'll book my flight immediately!

Sadly, no such nation exists. John burst that bubble when he said "the whole world lies in the power of the evil one" (1 John 5:19). There's the problem. Nations have chosen the path of sin (which Solomon says "is a disgrace"). The desire to follow sensual lusts, to covet more (of everything) has conquered the minds of nations throughout the world.

So what should we do? Throw up our hands and give up, resigning to this awful truth? Not a chance. Instead, here is the proper course of action:

First, do what is right regardless of what others are doing. God sees the nation, but he also sees the individual. We will not be judged as a group. You will be judged by yourself and so will I (John 5:28, 29; 2 Cor. 5:10; Rev. 20:11-15). The plea "well everyone is doing it" will not resonate with God!

Second, believe in the power of influence. Christians are the "salt of the earth." They are "the light of the world" (Matthew 5:13-14). Did you get that? "The earth" and "the world"! I think that covers all of the nations, doesn't it? Through the power of God we can impact the world for good.

Third, begin with one soul at a time.

The apostle Andrew is mentioned a meager 12 times in the New Testament (mostly in listings with the other apostles). However, in John 1:41 he brings his brother Peter to Jesus. Peter, who became one of the leading apostles and preached the first gospel sermon (Acts 2), is mentioned over 120 times! We never know what that one soul might mean to world evangelism.
