Sermon Notes

"The Book"

When we look throughout history, it is always interesting to see how much people gave up to be able to read the Bible. Several times the Bible was banned, suppressed, and destroyed. However, the Lord of all things is surely powerful enough to keep His book together. Since God has kept this book together for such a long time, obviously there is information of the utmost importance within it. Sometimes we can forget how important the Bible can really be. A poem written by Emilie Lenhart Robertson seems to describe this very well.

I've been sitting here thinking
 Of my life up to now
 The many roads I've traveled
 As I was searching how
 I could make it into heaven
 And really what it took
 And it came to me quite suddenly
 The way is in THE BOOK.

Yes, I've stumbled quite a lot
 As I've wandered through this life
 There were times I didn't care
 If what I did was wrong or right
 Somehow God was patient
 Each time His plan I forsook
 And I didn't pay attention
 To what was written in THE BOOK.

Now I thank God for His mercy,
 For watching over me each day
 For sending His son, Jesus,
 To show us all the way.
 I thank Him most of all, though,
 For causing me to look
 For I always knew the answer
 Would be written in THE BOOK.

What a tremendous blessing it is to have access to the greatest book ever written without the fear of persecution. Let us never forget the wonderful answers and information it contains and always look to God's Word.

 — Brett Petrillo

A kindergarten teacher was observing her classroom of children while they were drawing. She would occasionally walk around to see each child’s work. As she got to one little girl who was working diligently, she asked what the drawing was.
 The girl replied, “I’m drawing God.”
 The teacher paused and said, “But no one knows what God looks like.”
 Without missing a beat or looking up from her drawing, the girl replied, “They will in a minute.”

 I wouldn't even think of revealing his name, but a preacher was forced to stop by a traffic cop pulling him over for speeding. As the cop was about to write the ticket, the preacher said to him, “Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.”
 The cop handed the preacher the ticket and said, “Go thou and sin no more.”

 The children were lined up in the cafeteria of an elementary school for lunch. At the head of the table was a large pile of apples. The cafeteria worker made a note and posted it on the apple tray:
'Take only ONE. God is watching.'
 Moving further along the lunch line, at the other end of the table was a large pile of chocolate chip cookies. A child had written a note: 'Take all you want. God is watching the apples.'
