SKIPPING THANKSGIVING

In the mad rush to capitalize on Halloween and Christmas spending, it seems that Thanksgiving is getting overlooked.

The Bible is filled with admonitions for us to be thankful. Note just a few of them:

“It is good to give thanks to the Lord, and to sing praises to Your name, O most High” (Psalm 92:1).

“Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise. Be thankful to Him, and bless His name. For the Lord is good; His mercy is everlasting, and His truth endures to all generations” (Psalm 100:4-5).

“Giving thanks always for all things in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God, even the Father” (Ephesians 5:20).

“Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to

“And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also you were called in one body, and be thankful” (Colossians 3:15).

As Christians may we never think of thanksgiving as simply a day on the calendar. Let us be thankful every day for our very life, for our parents and grandparents, for our spouse, for our children, for our grandchildren, for our food, for our clothing, for our home, for our means of transportation, for our health, and for all other physical and material blessings. Let us constantly remember that “Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning” (James 1:17). Compared to most people in the world, the very poorest person in the United States is extremely wealthy!

As God's children let us be thankful at all times that God is our Father, that Christ is our Savior, that the Holy Spirit is the seal of our sonship and the earnest of our eternal inheritance, that the Bible is our sole and all-sufficient guide in religion, that the church is the redeemed body of people to which we have been added and of which we are members, and that heaven is our home!

Let us not be guilty of skipping thanksgiving!
