What book in the Bible mentions mowed grass?

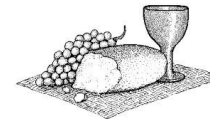

*Last week:
The exiled Jews hung their harps on these trees. WILLOW (Psalm 137:1-4)*

In contrast, the day Jesus was crucified has become known as “Good Friday.” The popular explanation being that this day represented the point in mankind’s history when man left the black curse of sin and death to enjoying the salvation of Christ through the blood shed on the cross; thus, mankind went from being “in the black” world of sin, to being “in the red” of Christ’s saving blood.

As the innocent blood of God's dying Son ran down the cross and dripped onto Golgotha's soil, the blackness of sin and death faded away into defeat. "But thanks be to God who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ" (1 Corinthians 15:57). Jesus said it best, "I have come as Light into the world, so that everyone who believes in Me will not remain in darkness" (John 12:46).

Let us gather around the Lord's table, not once a year, but every Lord's Day, and remember the day God's Son turned the "Black Friday" of His own death, into the "Good Friday" of man's salvation.
