17 Time Periods with Links and Books of the Bible

BEFORE THE FLOOD: "Before the flood" suggests that the next period is the flood because this first period includes everything before the flood.

THE FLOOD: Noah and his family grew and moved down from Mount Ararat until his descendants came to the plain of Shinar where they built the Tower of Babel.

SCATTERING OF THE PEOPLE: After the Tower of Babel, the families separated. Shem's family stayed in the vicinity of Mesopotamia. From Shem comes Abraham.

THE PATRIARCHS: The story of Joseph. In his day, the family of Israel moves down into Egypt. His story explains why the Israelites are in Egypt at the beginning of the book of Exodus.

THE EXODUS: The Israelites moved forward toward Canaan until Kadesh-Barnea. Their sin there required punishment. That punishment was wandering in the wilderness.

WANDERING IN THE WILDERNESS: Something brought the wandering in the wilderness to an end. The Israelites did not wander in the wilderness forever. It came to an end when what happened?
