What Can Happen In Just One Generation

Then the king sent Jehudi to get the scroll, and he took it from the chamber of Elishama the secretary. And Jehudi read it to the king and all the officials who stood beside the king. It was the ninth month, and the king was sitting in the winter house, and there was a fire burning in the fire pot before him. As Jehudi read three or four columns, the king would cut them off with a knife and throw them into the fire in the fire pot, until the entire scroll was consumed in the fire that was in the fire pot. Yet neither the king nor any of his servants who heard all these words was afraid, nor did they tear their garments. Even when Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah urged the king not to burn the scroll, he would not listen to them.
 Jeremiah 36:21-25

When Josiah, who was Jehoiakim's father, heard the words of the Law read, he tore his clothes. However, Jehoiakim did not tear his clothes. Instead, he took the Word of God and cut it up, burning each piece in the fire.

This should be a frightening passage for all of us. It shows us how quickly attitudes towards God's Word can change in just one generation. Though a generation of disciples are bold to follow God's Word and fought bravely to win back their generation to the true worship of God, their children after them may show no tenderness at all to what God says. Rather, they scoff at the commands of God and make light of those who would rend their garments over sin.

This should be a cautionary tale to those of us who grew up among those who were zealous to follow God's Word. Let us not become like Jehoiakim.

#2 of 10 Things I Wish the World Knew About Jesus

JESUS IS GOD'S ANSWER TO MAN'S SIN PROBLEM

Sin is man's great problem. Like a drop of poison in a glass of water, even a little taints the whole life and results in death (James 2:10). Sin is universal--"There is none righteous, no not one" (Romans 3:10); and fatal -- "the wages of sin is death" (Romans 6:23). Before Christ, sin was man's unsolvable problem.

Isaiah said saving man would be costly. Because of our sin, someone had to die--the just for the unjust (Isaiah 53:5-6).

In the Old Testament, an animal could die for a man's sin, but that was only a temporary solution (Hebrews 10:4).

When God saw man's desperate need, He provided a Savior (Acts 13:23). He sacrificed His own Son: "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life" (John 3:16). "The Father has sent the Son as Savior of the world" (1 John 4:14).

Jesus came to earth and lived a perfect life (Hebrews 4:15), qualifying Him to be the sacrifice for sin (a sinner could not die for sinners). Isaiah wrote, "He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement for our peace was upon Him, and by His stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned, everyone, to his own way; and the Lord has laid on Him the iniquity of us all" (Isaiah 53:5-6).
