People at the Cross

A Large Crowd of People

After Luke wrote about Simon carrying the cross, he also said, "And following Him was a large crowd of the people" (23:27). That is not surprising because during the Passover time, the population of Jerusalem swelled to about two million people. This crowd probably had no idea what was happening. They probably didn't realize that this man, Jesus, was going to be crucified so that they could be restored to fellowship with God. That scene describes today's events so vividly. Millions of people today are rushing through life not realizing that Jesus died for them!

Are you one of those who has not yet realized the importance of Christ's death?

Women Who Were Mourning

In contrast to the people who were rushing by, Luke noted a great contrast when he wrote, "Women who were mourning and lamenting Him" (23:27). These were some who had already made a connection with Jesus. They were grieving!

Isn't it remarkable that even though Jesus was in such terrible shape because of the beatings He had endured, He took notice of those who were mourning? That is the kind of God we serve – a compassionate one who is concerned for the welfare of others!

Jesus not only noticed their concern, He responded to them (23:28-31). He tells them that as bad as it was that day, it was going to be worse in the future. He probably had reference to the sorrow and heartache that was going to befall people when Jerusalem was destroyed by the Romans in 70 A.D.

Are you a person who weeps and mourns because of the death Jesus had to die?

Two Criminals

Among Christian people the person who is most remembered for being at the cross is one called "the thief on the cross," but there was another one and both were hurling insults at Jesus (Matthew 27:44). But, to make a brief point, both robbers were in the presences of Christ, and both could have been saved. The sad fact is that only one chose to believe in Jesus and be saved.

Again, what an accurate picture of thousands of people today. Many are hearing the gospel preached to them, but only a few are willing to submit to the commands of Christ and be saved. No doubt as soon as the other thief's soul entered torment, he regretted the decision he had made (See Luke 16:19-31 as an example).

Are you one who has been taught the gospel, but for some reason you have rejected Christ's great invitation (Matthew 11:28-30; Revelation 3:20)? If you are reading this, it's not too late to change your decision.
